Snowflake Shop 12/4

Don't Miss the Snowflake Shop—Happening This Week Only!

Our Gear Store will be open with CRI tee shirts and other goodies for sale! Enjoy hot beverages, live music, donation drops, and over 20 local vendors, many of whom are CRI members.

Be sure to bring a business card or add your name to our business sign-up so we can start building a database of pro-democracy services in our area!

Volunteers Needed at 7 PM!

The Snowflake Shop closes at 7pm, and we could really use a few extra hands to help our vendors pack up and get everything to their cars. With a jam-packed meeting ahead—year-end highlights, committee updates, and remarks from our very Creative Co-Chair Micaela about why we launched the shop and the power of consumer action—we don't want to miss a moment.

The more hands we have for breakdown, the less we miss. If you can help, please find Erica or Micaela in the lobby at 7pm!

Upcoming Build Days

The Creative Team is wrapping up a strong year with a low-key hang on Dec 11: Make holiday cards or BYO crafts, enjoy takeout, and celebrate our wins.

This is not a planned build day—we won't have full activities or a ton of supplies, more just a relaxed space to create, connect, and relish in a little holiday cheer.

We'll take a mid-Dec to mid-Jan break, then return with a more intentional craft schedule for 2026.

Donations

This holiday season, consider giving the gift of supporting CRI. Our small team of organizers, strategy team members, and committee chairs has clocked countless hours this year. Every contribution, big or small, helps us continue our work, grow our impact, and keep our community moving forward. Even $1–$5 a month from each active member can make a meaningful difference. You can set that up here.
