

MAY DAY 2026

This is our first newsletter following a brief pause, and safe to say... WE MISSED YOU!

We have continued organizing and building, and we invite you to review what we have accomplished and what is yet to come. Despite unpleasant weather, our No Kings 3 event came together amazingly because people showed up anyway! It reflects our shared commitment to participation and to one another.

We are sincerely grateful to our members, sister organizations, musical arts, and to Camden County for helping make the event a success. We're especially thankful for our Puppets and Puppeteers.

In recent weeks, we have seen a range of organizing efforts—events, protests, petitions, and more in development. Each effort contributes to a broader, ongoing push for change. None of this work stands alone because all is needed.

We were saddened to learn of the shooting attempt connected to the White House Correspondents' Dinner on Saturday night. Regardless of political perspective, violence is not the solution. At Cooper River Indivisible, we are committed to non-violent action. This commitment is central to our work, and we encourage our members to uphold that same principle.

🔥 🔥 🔥 May 1st is MAY DAY! 🔥 🔥 🔥

Looking ahead, May Day is approaching. Also known as International Workers' Day, May Day has its roots in labor movements advocating for fair wages, safe working conditions, and the fundamental dignity of workers. It remains an important moment for national collective action & reflection. We encourage you to take part as we join local orgs and unions to march across the Camden County bridge tomorrow May 1st.

You can also...

Interact online

One of our many sources of power comes directly from people like you following social media profiles. It is a simple action that has real impact.

Like, Share, and Comment on CRI Facebook and Instagram posts!

Every interaction helps boost our visibility and get our message in front of more people. It's one of the easiest ways to support the work we're doing. The more you like, share, and comment, the more our voices reach beyond our circle and into the community.

Donate - Donations Help!

We are all volunteers and we run CRI on a shoestring budget, but we could use a couple bucks to make copies, buy snacks, and pay for meeting space. If you can make a recurring contribution or a one-time contribution, it helps make what we do possible. Donate To Cooper River Indivisible
